PENSION SCHEMES TO WIDEN PENSION INFRASTRUCTURE

Shishir Sinha

India has improved its ranking in Melbourne Mercer Global Pension Index, a well-recognised benchmark for assessing country's performance in providing pension and retirement benefits to its citizens.

2019 Index places India at 32nd position out of 37 countries while in 2018 it was at 33rd position out of 34 countries. Its score improved to 45.8 in 2019 from 44.6 in 2018. Still, it is just a notch above the last grade and placed along with Argentina, China, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Philippines, Thailand and Turkey. How is the system in these countries? Answer to this question lies in the description related with the group which reads like this, "A system that has some desirable features, but also has major weaknesses and/or omission that need to be addressed. Without these improvements, its efficacy and sustainability are in doubt."

Denmark, Netherlands and Australia are top three countries in this ranking with index value of 75 to 80 and above.

Talking about India, the report says that the Indian index value increased due to small increase in each of the three sub-indices, which are adequacy, sustainability and integrity. The adequacy sub-index considers the benefits provided to the poor and a range of income earners as well as several design features and characteristics which enhance the efficacy of the overall retirement income system.

Here, Indian's sub-index value improved to 39.9 from 38.7

The sustainability sub-index considers a number of indicators which influence the long-term sustainability of current retirement income systems. Here, India's score was 44.9 up from 43.8. Finally, the integrity sub-index considers three broad areas of the pension system, namely regulation and governance; protection and communication for members, and operating costs. In this category, India scored 56.3 from 55.2.

The report noted that here retirement income system comprises an earnings-related employee pension scheme, a defined contribution employee provident fund, and supplementary employer managed pension schemes that are largely defined contribution in nature. Government schemes have been launched as part of universal social security program aimed at benefiting the unorganised sector. The National Pension System is gradually gaining popularity, it said.

Let us discuss key pension schemes available in India:

National Pension System (NPS)

Introduced from January 1, 2004, it brought about a paradigm shift in the pension system especially for Government employees. With this pension became 'contributory' from 'defined'. According to a Government gazette notification dated December 22, 2003, the Recently there were two important reports relevant to the theme of this article, in a leading financial daily of the country. The first report had the caption-'Indian Companies are expanding their in-house legal teams'. The other report talked of legal and education sectors being the most dynamic in terms of hiring of professionals in the first half of 2018. This should cheer up those willing to enter the corporate world with a law degree.

Law means a system of rules, regulations and guidelines legally enforceable. Corporate law refers to rules, regulations and guidelines applicable to companies. Subject to conditions a company is also a legal entity and there are a number of laws specifically made for such entities.

As a discipline of study law has been in existence for decades. However the kind of career opportunities this field is offering were not seen 20-25 years before. It was hardly a preferred subject of study for most of the students. Studying law meant later becoming an advocate and practicing in a court of law, mostly in lower courts. Majority of law graduates could get to practice at district and taluka level courts, with very few of them being able to join the bar at high and supreme court even after putting in long number of years. Few legal luminaries enhanced the prestige of profession. Nevertheless the subject rarely could be put in the league of engineering, medical, management which used to attract large number of students from the career's point of view.

CAREERS IN CORPORATE LAW

Today the situation has completely changed. In fact law is at the top among list of subjects study of which has seen a complete paradigm shift. Today many bright students are keen to study law and build a corporate career in it. This paradigm shift has happened mainly because of following situations or reasons:

Professionalization of legal education: Earlier law courses used to be taught at universities and university affiliated colleges. There was dearth of institutes exclusively meant for legal education. Establishing bodies like National Law School University of India was on the patterns of IITs and IIMs and created a new identity for study of the subject.

Expansion of markets and consumerism: Indian markets and businesses are expanding in a big way and consumerism is gaining strength on a continuous basis. There is a growing demand for products and services including financial services. This also influences requirement of manpower. The increase in demand of professionals in various disciplines, law included, is a testimony to this.

English rendering of PM's address in the 5th Episode of 'Mann Ki Baat 2.0' on 27.10.2019

www.Jobriya.com

My dear countrymen, Namaskar. On the pious festival of Deepawali, greetings to all of you. We are familiar with the lines of the Shlok-

*Shubham Karoti Kalyanam, Aarogyam Dhansampadaa.
Shatrubudhdi Vinashaay, Deepajyoti Namostute!!*

What a fine, purposeful message! The shlok says: It is Light that ushers in joy, health and prosperity into our lives, dispelling negative thought, bringing in positivity. I salute the divine flame respectfully. To make this Diwali memorable, what could be a better way than an attempt to let light spread its radiance, encouraging positivity, with a prayer to quell the feeling of animosity? These days Diwali is celebrated across many countries. And notably, it is not limited to Indian communities; even governments, citizens and social organisations whole-heartedly celebrate Diwali with gaiety and fervour. In a way, they nurture a microcosm of India at their respective places.

Friends, festival tourism has its own exciting attractions. Our India, the country of festivals, possesses limitless possibilities in the realm of festival tourism. It must be our endeavour to ensure that we should welcomingly include people of other states, other countries when we celebrate Holi, Diwali, Onam, Pongal or Bihu, spreading their true spirit. Here, every state, every region is replete with distinct festivals, generating a lot of interest in people from other countries. Hence, the Indian Diaspora has a significant role to play in promoting festival tourism in India .

My dear countrymen, in the previous episode of Mann Ki Baat, we had decided to do something different this Diwali. I had urged all of you to celebrate India's Nari-Shakti, the power and achievement of women, thereby felicitating the Lakshmi of India. And within no time, there followed a slew of innumerable inspirational stories on social media. Kodipaka Ramesh from Warangal has written on Namu App- "My mother is my strength. In 1990, when my father expired, the responsibility to raise five sons fell on her shoulders. Today, all five brothers are doing well in their respective professions. My mother is God to me. She is the Lakshmi of India in every sense of the term." Ramesh ji , respectful greetings to your mother. Geetika Swami, who is active on Twitter, says that for her, Major Khushbu Kanwar, daughter of a bus conductor, who has led an all women contingent of Assam Rifles, is the Lakshmi of India. For Kavita Tiwari, her daughter is the Lakshmi of India, her strength. She is proud of her daughter's excellent painting ability. She has also secured a good rank in the CLAT exam. Whereas Megha Jain has mentioned that a 92 year old woman has been offering free drinking water to passengers at Gwalior Railway Station. Megha Ji is truly inspired by the humility and compassion of this Lakshmi of India. Many such stories have been shared by people. Do read them, get inspired and share similar instances. I respectfully salute all the Lakshmis of India.

My dear countrymen, the well known 17th century poetess Sanchi Honnamma has penned a poem in Kannada that embodies the same thought, the same words pertaining to every Lakshmi of India that we referred to. One feels the foundation of the idea was laid in the 17th century itself. You will notice the beauty of word, sentiment and thought in this poem in Kannada:

(Penninda permegondanu himavantanu.

Which means, Himwant, Lord Mount attained fame on account of daughter Parvati, Rishi Brighu on account of his daughter Lakshmi and King Janak because of daughter Sita. Our daughters are our pride...their prodigious virtuosity cradles our social fabric, ensuring its bright future.

My dear countrymen, the 12th of November, 2019 is the day when the 550th Prakashotsav of Guru Nanak dev ji will be celebrated across the world. The luminescence of Guru Nanak Dev ji's influence can be felt not only in India but around the world. Many of our Sikh brothers and sisters settled in other countries committedly follow Guru Nanak dev ji's ideals. I can never forget my visits to Gurudwaras in Vancouver and Tehran. There is much about Guru Nanak Dev ji that I can share with you, but it will require many an episode of Mann ki Baat. He accorded the highest significance to the spirit of service. Guru Nank Dev ji firmly believed that any service done selflessly was beyond evaluation. He stood firm against social ills such as untouchability. Sri Guru Nanak Dev ji radiated his message to all corners of the world. He was the widest travelled of those times. And wherever he went he won hearts through his straightforwardness, humility and simplicity. Guru Nanak Ji undertook many significant spiritual journeys called 'Udaasi'. Carrying the message of harmony and equality, he travelled north, south, east and west, meeting people, saints and sages. It is said that the revered Assamese saint Shankar Dev too was inspired by him. He also travelled to the holy land of Haridwar. There is a holy place in Kashi named 'Gurubagh Gurudwara'. It is believed that Guru Nanak Dev Ji had halted there. He also went to Buddhist holy sites such as Rajgir and Gaya. His journeys to the south took him to Sri Lanka, as well. During his Yatra to Bidar, Karnataka, he devised a solution for water woes the place was grappling with. Gurunanak Jhira Sahib is a famous place in Bidar dedicated to him, cherishing reminiscences of him. During one Udaasi, Gurunanak Dev Ji travelled north to Kashmir and neighboring areas. This forged a strong bond between Sikh followers and Kashmir. Guru Nanak Dev Ji also went to Tibet where people accorded him the status of a Guru. He is revered in Uzbekistan too, which he had visited. During one Udaasi, he widely travelled to Islamic countries including Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Afghanistan. He secured a revered place in the hearts of millions who followed his messages with complete devotion, a practice that continues even in the present times. Just a few days ago, Ambassadors of approximately eighty-five countries went to Amritsar from Delhi. There in the Golden Temple itself, they undertook a holy Darshan, commemorating the 550th Prakash Parv of Guru Nanak Devji. Besides Darshan, all these Ambassadors had the opportunity to know more about Sikh traditions and culture. Following that, many Ambassadors shared those photos on social media, writing about their glorious experiences. It's my devout wish to imbibe Guru Nanak Dev Ji's thoughts and ideals into our lives; may we be all the more inspired to make it happen.

My dear brothers and sisters, I am sure all of you remember the significance of the 31st of October. This day marks the birth anniversary of the Iron Man of India, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the unifying force in bonding us as a Nation; our Hero. On the one hand Sardar Patel, possessed the rare quality of uniting people; on the other, he was able to strike a balance with people who were not in ideological agreement with him. Sardar Patel used to observe even the minutest of things in-depth; assessing and evaluating them simultaneously.

He was a 'Man of Detail' in the true sense of the term. Along with that, he was also adept at organising skills. Chalking out plans and devising strategies was his core forte'. When we read and hear about Sardar Saheb's style of working, we come to know of the sheer magnitude of the meticulousness in his planning. In 1921, in the Congress Session in Ahmedabad, thousands of delegates from across the country were slated to participate. Sardar Patel was entrusted with overlooking all the arrangements. He utilized this opportunity in improving the city's water supply network. He ensured that not a single person would face a problem on account of water. Not just that, he was also concerned about the safety and security of the delegates' shoes and baggage. To ensure that, what he did will surprise you. He contacted farmers and urged them to craft khadi bags. These were made and sold to the delegates. They carried the bags with their shoes inside, free from any tension of the footwear getting stolen. On the other hand, it led to a major rise in the sale of khadi. Our country will always be indebted to Sardar Patel for his steller role in the Constituent Assembly. He strove to ensure enshrinement of fundamental rights that obliterated any possibility of discrimination on the basis of caste and community.

Friends, all of us know that as India's first home minister, Sardar Patel undertook the colossal, historic task of integrating Princely states. Scrutinizing the minutest of events closely was his rare quality. On the one hand, he concentrated on Hyderabad, Junagarh and other States; on the other, he was watching far flung Lakshadweep intently. Actually, when we refer to Sardar Patel's endeavour, his role in the unification of just a few notable States is discussed. He played a far more significant role, when it came to a small region such as Lakshadweep too. Lakshadweep is one of the most beautiful landscapes in India. Soon after system became mandatory for all new recruits to the Central Government services from January 1, 2004 (Except the armed forces in the first stage. Initially, every recruit was asked to contribute 10 per cent of the basic salary and DA (Dearness Allowance) and matched. However, there will be no contribution from the Government in respect of individuals who are not Government employees.

Under this system, there are two types of account, tier-I and tier-II. First one is non-withdrawable till the age of retirement i.e. 60 years. Even at the time of retirement, 40 per cent of accumulated wealth would be required to invest in annuity, which will provide monthly pension to the Government employees and thereafter his/her, spouse and dependent parents. Remaining 60 per cent would be paid lump sum to the employees. If anyone leaving the pension system before the age of 60, he/she will get 20 per cent as lump-sums, while mandatory annuitisation would be 80 per cent of the pension wealth. Here, contribution, accumulation and withdrawal do not attract tax.

Tier-II account would be voluntary and withdrawable. This option has been given as General Provident Fund (GPF) is no longer available for recruits joining Government services on or after January 1, 2004. However, Government does not contribute into this account, though it is managed like tier-I. The employee is free to withdraw amount from this account any time. There is no special tax treatment for this account.

Meanwhile, the Centre, through a Cabinet decision on December 6, 2008, announced following changes in NPS for the Government employees

- Enhancement of the mandatory contribution by the Central Government for its employees covered under NPS Tier-I from the existing 10% to 14%.
- Providing freedom of choice for selection of Pension Funds and pattern of investment to central government employees.
- Payment of compensation for non-deposit or delayed deposit of NPS contributions during 2004-2012.
- Tax exemption limit for lump sum withdrawal on exit has been enhanced to 60 per cent. With this, the entire withdrawal has now been exempted from income tax.
- Contribution by the Government employees under Tier-II of NPS will now be covered under Section 80 C for deduction up to Rs. 1.50 lakh for the purpose of income tax at par with the other schemes such as General Provident Fund, Contributory Provident Fund, Employees Provident Fund and Public Provident Fund provided that there is a lock-in period of 3 years.

Changes will benefit to approximately 18 lakh central government employees covered under NPS. It is expected that State Governments will also extend the benefit to its employees enrolled under NPS.

After successful implementation for the Central Government employees, NPS was made available to all citizens of India from May 1, 2009, to corporate in December 2011, to Non-Resident Indians in October 2015 and to Overseas Citizen of India in October 2019. A citizen of India, whether resident or non-resident, can subscribe NPS. He/she should be between 18 - 60 years of age as on the date of submission of his/her application and comply with the Know Your Customer (KYC) norms. Here too, the subscribers will have option for both tier-I and tier-II accounts. Terms and conditions for these accounts will be same like for the Government employees, however, the Government will not make matching contribution in tier-I.

Employees' Pension Scheme, 1995 (EPS)

Subscriber of Employee's Provident Fund (EPF) is eligible for this pension scheme and he/she automatically gets enrolled after becoming part of EPF. Only difference here is that not employee but employer and the Government make the contribution. Also return here is granted.

The scheme is managed by Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) and ensures that employee gets a pension once he or she attains the age of 58 years. As of now, employee and employer contribute 12 per cent of employee's basic salary plus dearness allowance towards EPF. Employee's entire contribution of 12 per cent is deposited in EPF while 8.33 per cent (out of 12 per cent) from employers goes towards EPS and remaining in EPF. Also, the Government contributes 1.16 per cent (of employee's basic plus DA) towards EPS as well.

One is eligible to get pension under EPS 95 after attaining the age of 58 years. However, there is one condition which says the benefits of the scheme can be availed only if the employee served for at least 10 years (this does not have to be continuous service). In case the widow/widower is receiving the EPS amount, they will continue to receive the amount until his/her death. After that, the children will receive the pension amount until they attain the age of 25 years. In case the child is physically challenged, they will receive the pension amount until his/her death.

As of now, floor for monthly pension is Rs. 1,000, while maximum has been capped at Rs. 15,000. However, the Supreme Court upheld the Kerala High Court verdict on monthly pension from the EPS 95. The cap of Rs. 15,000 on the basic salary was removed by the High Court. Also, there is long pending proposal to double the minimum pension to Rs. 2,000. Meanwhile, both the changes are yet to be implemented as no guidelines have been issued for implementing decisions of the apex court, while Central Board of Trustees (CBT) has not recommended doubling the minimum limit.

Atal Pension Yojana (APY)

As a part of Jan Dhan se Jan Suraksha, APY was launched on May 9, 2015 by the Prime Minister. It is open to all saving bank/post office saving bank account holders in the age group of 18 to 40 years and the contributions differ, based on pension amount chosen. Subscribers would receive the guaranteed minimum monthly pension of Rs. 1,000 or Rs. 2,000 or Rs. 3,000 or Rs. 4,000 or Rs. 5,000 at the age of 60 years.

Under APY, the monthly pension would be available to the subscriber, and after him to his spouse and after their death, the pension corpus, as accumulated at age 60 of the subscriber, would be returned to the nominee of the subscriber. The minimum pension would be guaranteed by the Government, i.e., if the accumulated corpus based on contributions earns a lower than estimated return on investment and is inadequate to provide the minimum guaranteed pension, the Central Government would fund such inadequacy. Alternatively, if the returns on investment are higher, the subscribers would get enhanced pensionary benefits.

In the event of pre-mature death of the subscriber, Government has decided to give an option to the spouse of the subscriber to continue contributing to APY account of the subscriber, for the remaining vesting period, till the original subscriber would have attained the age of 60 years. The spouse of the subscriber shall be entitled to receive the same pension amount as that of the subscriber until the death of the spouse. After the death of both the subscriber and the spouse, the nominee of the subscriber shall be entitled to receive the pension wealth, as accumulated till age 60 of the subscriber.

Pradhan Mantri Shram Yogi Maan-dhan (PM-SYM)

This scheme is meant to provide workers in unorganised sector. After announcement in the interim budget on February 1, 2019, the scheme was rolled out by the Ministry of Labour and Employment on February 15, 2019.

As many as 42 crore workers are estimated to be engaged in the unorganized sector of the country. These workers mostly engaged as home based workers, street vendors, mid-day meal workers, head loaders, brick kiln workers, cobblers, rag pickers, domestic workers, washer men, rickshaw pullers, landless labourers, own account workers, agricultural workers, construction workers, beedi workers, handloom workers, leather workers, audio-visual workers and similar other occupations. www.Jobriya.com

Any such worker with monthly income up to Rs. 15,000 belong to the entry age group of 18-40 years are eligible for the scheme. They should not be covered under New Pension Scheme (NPS), Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) scheme or Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO). Further, he/she should not be an income tax payer.

The subscriber's contributions to PM-SYM shall be made through 'auto-debit' facility from his/ her savings bank account/ Jan-Dhan account. The subscriber is required to contribute the prescribed contribution amount from the age of joining PM-SYM till the age of 60 years.

Each subscriber under the PM-SYM, will receive minimum assured pension of Rs. 3000 per month after attaining the age of 60 years. During the receipt of pension, if the subscriber dies, the spouse of the beneficiary shall be entitled to receive 50 per cent of the pension received by the beneficiary as family pension. Family pension is applicable only to spouse.

If a beneficiary has given regular contribution and died due to any cause (before age of 60 years), his/her spouse will be entitled to join and continue the scheme subsequently by payment of regular contribution or exit the scheme as per provisions of exit and withdrawal.

PM Kisan Maan-dhan Yojana

This scheme was launched on September 12, 2019. It is a voluntary and contributory scheme for farmers in the entry age group of 18 to 40 years. Subscriber will get a monthly pension of Rs. 3000 on attaining the age of 60 years. This scheme is likely to benefit nearly 5 crore small and marginal farmers Interested farmers will have to make a monthly contribution of Rs. 55 to Rs. 200, depending on their age of entry, in the Pension Fund till they reach the retirement date i.e. the age of 60 years. The Central Government will also make an equal contribution of the same amount in the pension fund. The spouse is also eligible to get a separate pension of Rs.3000/- upon making separate contributions to the Fund. The Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) shall be the Pension Fund Manager and responsible for Pension pay out.

In case of death of the farmer before retirement date, the spouse may continue in the scheme by paying the remaining contributions till the remaining age of the deceased farmer. If the spouse does not wish to continue, the total contribution made by the farmer along with interest will be paid to the spouse. If there is no spouse, then total contribution along with interest will be paid to the nominee. If the farmer dies after the retirement date, the spouse will receive 50 per cent of the pension as Family Pension.

After the death of both the farmer and the spouse, the accumulated corpus shall be credited back to the Pension Fund. The beneficiaries may opt voluntarily to exit the Scheme after a minimum period of 5 years of regular contributions. On exit, their entire contribution shall be returned by LIC with an interest equivalent to prevailing saving bank rates.

The farmers, who are also beneficiaries of PM-Kisan Scheme, will have the option to allow their contribution debited from the benefit of that Scheme directly. In case of default in making regular contributions, the beneficiaries are allowed to regularize the contributions by paying the outstanding dues along with prescribed interest. The initial enrolment to the Scheme is being done through the Common Service Centres in various states.

Pradhan Mantri Laghu Vyapari Maan-dhan Yojana

This scheme was also announced in the Union Budget 2019-20 and made operational from July 22. This scheme is meant for small businessmen who are self-employed and working as shop owners, retail traders, rice mill owners, oil mill owners, workshop owners, commission agents, brokers of real estate, owners of small hotels, restaurants and other small businessmen. The operations of such small traders are generally characterized by family owned establishments, small scale of operations, labour intensive, inadequate financial aid, seasonal in nature and extensive unpaid family labour. Nearly three crore small businessmen are likely to be covered initially.

This Scheme will be open only to those small businessmen whose annual turnover does not exceed Rs 1.5 crore, based on self-declaration, who has a savings bank account in his/her name and Aadhar number. He/she should be less than

Partition in 1947, our neighbour had cast an eye on Lakshadweep; a ship bearing their flag was sent there. When Sardar Patel was informed of this, he wasted no time in initiating stern action. He urged the Mudaliar brothers, Arcot Ramaswamy Mudaliar and Arcot Laxman Swamy Mudaliar to immediately undertake a mission with people of Travancore to Lakshadweep and take the lead in unfurling the Tricolour there. Following his orders, the Tricolour was promptly unfurled there and the nefarious dreams of the neighbour of annexing Lakshadweep were decimated within no time. After this incident, Sardar Patel asked the Mudaliar brothers to personally ensure all assistance for development of Lakshadweep. Today, Lakshadweep is contributing significantly in India's progress. It is an attractive tourist destination too. I hope you get the opportunity to visit the picturesque islands and its pristine beaches.

My dear countrymen, the 31st of October, 2018, is the day when the 'Statue of Unity', in memory of Sardar Saheb was dedicated to the nation and the world. It is the tallest statue in the world. It is double in height compared to the 'Statue of Liberty' located in the US. The distinction of having the world's highest statue fills every Indian with pride; the head of every Indian is held high. You will be happy to note that in a year, more than 26 lakh tourists visited the 'Statue of Unity'. This means that an average of eight and a half thousand people witnessed the grandeur of the 'Statue of Unity' every day. The reverence and devotion for Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in their hearts was reflected in the form of homage paid to him. Besides, at present, it houses many centres of attraction such as Cactus Garden, Butterfly Garden, Jungle Safari, and Children's Nutrition Park, Ekta Nursery, which are all constantly evolving and providing a fillip to the local economy. Local people are not only getting innovative opportunities of employment but for the convenience of visiting tourists, many villagers are providing facilities like home stays. And these hosts are being professionally trained in the technique of running a home stay. The locals have now started the cultivation of Dragon fruit and I am sure that it will soon become a major source of livelihood for the people there.

Friends, for our nation and the constituent states, as well as for the tourism industry, this 'Statue of Unity' can be a subject of research. We are all witness to the fact that how within a year a place developed as a world famous tourism destination. People arrive there from the country and abroad. And one after the other, ancillary services like transport, lodging, guides and eco-friendly services are getting inducted by themselves. A large economy is developing and people are generating facilities as per the requirement of the tourists. The government is also playing its role. Friends, which Indian will not be imbued with pride for the fact that recently, Time magazine has included the 'Statue of Unity' in its list of 100 important tourist destinations around the world. Of course I hope, that all of you will devote some of your precious time to visit the 'Statue of Unity'. But my appeal is, that every Indian who takes out time to travel must visit at least 15 Tourist Destinations of India with family and experience a night stay at whichever place you go to; this still remains my appeal.

Friends, as you know that 31st October every year since 2014 has been celebrated as 'National Unity Day'. This day imparts the message to protect the unity, integrity and security of our country at any cost. On 31st October, this year too 'Run for Unity' is being organized in consonance with previous years. It will include people from all walks of life, from every segment of our society. 'Run for Unity' is a symbol of unison, that the nation being united, is moving in one direction and collectively aims for- One goal! Ek Bharat, Shreshth Bharat!

The last five years have witnessed - not only in Delhi but in hundreds of cities of India, union territories, state capitals, district centres, even in small cities belonging to tier two or tier three categories, innumerable men, women, be they the city folk, village folk, children, the youth, the elderly, divyang, all are participating in 'Run for Unity' in large numbers. Anyway, at present, people have adopted and found a passion for the marathon. 'Run for Unity' is also one such unique provision. Running is beneficial for the mind, body and soul. During 'Run for Unity' not only do we have to run, but in doing so the spirit of FIT India is also reflected. We also find ourselves connected with Ek Bharat- Shreshth Bharat! And so, not just our body, but our mind and value system get integrated with ushering unity in India to take India to loftier heights! And so, in whichever city you reside, you can find out about the 'Run for Unity' schedule. A portal namely runforunity.gov.in has also been launched for dissemination of information about this event. In this portal, information has been provided about the venues where 'Run for Unity' is to be organized across the country. I hope you will all run on October 31st -not only for the unity of India, but also for your physical fitness!

My dear countrymen, Sardar Patel integrated the nation with the thread of unison. This mantra of unity is like a sacrament in our life and in a country like ours filled with diversities, we should continue to strengthen this mantra of unison on all paths, at every bend, and at every pit-stop. My dear countrymen, our nation has always been very proactive and alert in strengthening unity and communal harmony in the country. If we look around us, we will find many examples of individuals who have been working ceaselessly to foster communal harmony. But sometimes it so happens, that the efforts of the society and its contribution, get wiped from our collective memory. www.Jobriya.com

Friends, I remember when the Allahabad High Court gave its verdict on Ram Janmabhoomi in September 2010. You could jog your memory a bit and reflect about the atmosphere then. Various kinds of people took to the arena! Various interest groups were playing games to take advantage of that situation in their own way! The kind of language that was spoken in order to generate tension in the atmosphere! There was also an attempt to instill shrillness in the tone of different speakers. Some of the loudmouths and the braggarts had the sole intention of hogging the spotlight at that time. And we all know what kind of irresponsible talk was floating around! But this scenario had continued for five days, or seven days, or ten days, but, the delivery of the court's decision generated a pleasant and surprising change of mood in the country.

On the one hand, the machinations went on to generate tension for week or two, but, when the decision was taken on Ram Janmabhoomi, the government, political parties, social organizations, civil society, representatives of all sects and saints gave restrained and balanced statements. There were attempts to reduce the tension in the sociopolitical environment. But I remember that day vividly. And whenever I do that, I get happy that the dignity of the judiciary was very proudly honoured and no allowance for any heated discourse or tension was made anywhere. These incidents should always be remembered as they impart us a lot of strength. That day, that moment, instills in us all a sense of duty. It is an example of how the voice of unison can bestow strength upon our country.

My dear countrymen, on 31st October, on the same day... the former Prime Minister of our country Smt Indira ji was assassinated. It was a traumatic moment for our country. Today, I pay homage to her too.

My dear countrymen, today, if one story that rings from home to home, and rings far and wide, is heard from north to south, east to west and from every corner of India, then that IS the story of cleanliness and sanitation. Every person, every family, every village wants to narrate their pleasant experiences in relation to the cleanliness mission, because behind this effort of cleanliness is the effort of 125 crore Indians.

The outcome also belongs to 125 crore Indians. But therein lies a pleasant and interesting experience too. I heard it and I think, I will share it with you too. Just imagine the highest battlefield in the world, where the temperature drops from zero to 50-60 degrees minus. Oxygen in the air is also at a miniscule level. Living in the midst of such adverse conditions and challenges is not less than any display of valour. In such a difficult situation, our brave heart soldiers are not only protecting the borders of the country, but are also running a 'Swacch Siachen' campaign in that arena.

On behalf of our countrymen, I commend the Indian Army for this amazing commitment. I also express my gratitude. It is so cold there that its near impossible for anything to decompose. In such a situation, the segregation and management of garbage is a very important task in itself. In this scenario, to remove 130 tons and more of garbage from the glacier and its surrounding area's fragile eco-system is a great service! It is an eco-system which is home to rare species like the snow leopard and rare animals like ibex and brown bears. We all know that Siachen as a glacier is a source of rivers and clean water. Therefore, running a cleanliness campaign here means ensuring clean water for those who live in low-lying areas and also use the water of rivers like Nubra and Shyok.

My dear countrymen, festivals are occasions that awaken a new consciousness in our lives. And especially during Diwali, it is customary in every family to buy something new, get something from the market in smaller or larger quantity. I had once said that we should try to buy local products. There is no need to go to the tehsil if our need is met in our village. If it is found in Tehsil, then there is no need to go to the district. The more we try to buy our local things; the 'Gandhi 150' will become a great event in itself. And I keep insisting that we must buy some handloom products made by our weavers, our khadi artisans.

Even during this Diwali, you must have bought quite a few or a lot of things before Diwali. But there are many people who think that if they go shopping after Diwali then may be they could get a good bargain. So there will be many people, who still have their shopping left. Hence along with the best of wishes on Deepawali, I would urge you to come forward and become a patron of local things and buy local. And witness for ourselves, how we can play an important role in making Mahatma Gandhi's dream come alive. I once again wish you all the very best on this auspicious festival of Diwali. In Diwali we burst fire crackers of all kinds! But, sometimes fire is caused due to carelessness. An injury can also occur. I urge all of you to take utmost care of yourself and also celebrate the festival with great enthusiasm. I extend many felicitations to you.

Thank you very much.

eighteen years of age and not exceeding forty years of age. Those will not be eligible to join the scheme, if he/she is covered under National Pension Scheme contributed by the Central Government or Employees' State Insurance Corporation Scheme under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 or Employees' Provident Fund Scheme under the Employees' Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 or if he/she is an income-tax assessee.

Each eligible subscriber under this scheme will receive assured minimum monthly pension of Rs 3,000 after attaining the age of 60 years through Life Insurance Corporation of India. Once the eligible subscriber joins this scheme at the entry age between 18-40 years, such subscriber has to contribute till attaining the age of 60 years and on attaining that age, such subscriber will be entitled to get the assured minimum monthly pension with benefit of family pension.

Conclusion

Apart from these Government schemes, there are pension plans offered by financial intermediaries. Still, the fact is that pension penetration is very low. Report accompanying Melbourne Mercer Global Pension Index found that just six per cent working age population are members are private pension plans. At the same time a CRISIL research report (Financial security for India's elderly: The imperatives, April 2017) for pension market regulator PFRDA says that India is a young country in terms of demography, but ageing gradually. "By 2050, every fifth Indian will be a sexagenarian compared with every twelfth now, putting the country in a position similar to today's developed world in terms of the share of the elderly in population. Hence, it is important that the development of the underpenetrated pension market in India be initiated now, when the situation is ripe," it mentioned.

The report has quoted finding of World Health Organisation which says that India's life expectancy has also been on the rise - going from 62.5 in 2000 to 68.3 in 2015. Also, the life expectancy at age 60 stands at 17.9 in 2015 vis-à-vis 16.5 in 2000. All these are preparing a ground for much better and wider pension infrastructure and that too at affordable cost and with simplicity.

CAREERS IN ...

Increase in regulations: Although this is the age of liberalization and governments are trying to promote ease of business, there has to be certain regulations to ensure fair practices, corporate governance and tax compliance etc. These has legal connotations and in many cases companies want these to be handled by legal professionals with required specialization or expertise.

Corporatization of legal jobs: The business culture in the country has grown more sophisticated in recent years. There is more liking for professionally educated, competent people in all walks of business. Big companies decided to have their own legal team and smaller companies followed.

Increasing interest of foreign players in the Indian market: India is among the fastest growing economy in the world and a leader among emerging markets. After China it has the largest population. The sheer size of the market is enough to attract global players, foreign institutional investors (FIIs) etc. To enter a new market these need to know various legal provisions so that their entry can be smooth with no legal complications. Here corporate lawyers come to their help.

Study of Law

To have any kind of professional career in law, you need at least a bachelor degree in the subject. Perhaps it is the only subject which requires a degree to pursue a degree. The Bachelor of Law usually known as LL.B qualification requires a study of three years and you may join it after completing an education cycle of 10+2+3. However now integrated courses offering a law degree are extensively available which can be joined after 10+2. The duration of such courses is five years. It saves you one year as doing both graduation and LL.B one after the other takes six years.

If you are going for a 3 years course in law you may join it after B.A, B.Sc., B.Com., B.B.A etc. There are also people who pursue a law degree after their postgraduation. So you can find people who have set of qualifications like M.A., LL.B; M.SC.; LL.B etc.

Five years courses are available in combination with B.A, B.Sc., B.Com., B.B.A etc. The availability may differ from institute to institute meaning that not all combinations are available at all the institutes. Although a LL.B degree is considered sufficient for a corporate career in law, few people prefer to add a postgraduate qualification (LL.M) as well. Entrance tests for law courses

Entrance tests

There are a number of entrance tests for admission to LL.B and LL.M courses. Foremost among these is Common Law Admission Test (CLAT) which is gateway to national law institutes established by government. The test is conducted at many centres and has multiple choice questions from the following:

English including Comprehension Legal Aptitude (to check awareness about constitutional law, jurisprudence, law of contract etc.), Logical Reasoning, General Knowledge and Current Affairs, Elementary Mathematics and Numerical Ability.

Nearly 50 other institutes consider CLAT score for admission to their LL.B programmes.

Law School Admission Test India is a paper and pencil test conducted by a private agency. The scores are accepted by many private institutions for admission to their undergraduate and postgraduate law courses. Questions relate to analytical reasoning, logical reasoning (in two parts) and reading comprehension.

Few state governments have established testing bodies to conduct entrance examination for admissions to multiple courses (including courses in law) in universities within their state. For example Maharashtra has a MH CET whereas Kerala has KEAM. Another example is Telangana State Common Law Entrance Test.

There are universities conducting their own tests. Banaras Hindu university, Rajasthan University, Panjab University, Aligarh Muslim University and many others can be included in this.

What you will do

■ In a historic move, two Union Territories of J&K and Ladakh formally came into existence on October 31, 2019 - the birth anniversary of the Iron man of India, Sardar Patel. While R K Mathur was sworn in as the first Lieutenant Governor of the newly carved UT of Ladakh, Girish Chand Murmu took over as first Lieutenant Governor of UT of Jammu & Kashmir. The Centre also appointed Umang Narula as advisor to the newly-appointed Lt Governor of Ladakh. SS Khandare, a 1995-batch IPS officer, has been appointed Head of Police of the Union Territory of Ladakh. The creation of two new UTs of J&K and Ladakh follows a landmark decision by the centre to abrogate Article 370 and 35A of the constitution on 5th August this year. Under the provision, Union Territory will have an elected assembly and Chief Minister on the lines of Puducherry. Ladakh will be a UT on the lines of Andaman and Nicobar, directly governed by Lieutenant Governor. The Legislative Council of the state of J&K has been abolished. The J&K assembly will be reconstituted after de-limitation of seats. Ladakh will have two Hill councils directly under LG. The High Court of Jammu and Kashmir will be common for both Ladakh and Jammu and Kashmir. Ladakh shall come under the ambit of the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) for the recruitment of officers. Jammu and Kashmir will continue to have the Public Service Commission (PSC) as the recruiting agency for the gazetted services. Government employees of the new union territories will start getting salaries and other benefits according to the recommendations of the seventh Pay Commission.

INTERNATIONAL

■ International Court of Justice (ICJ) President Judge Abdulqawi Yusuf told the United Nations General Assembly that Pakistan violated its obligations under the Vienna Convention in the case of Indian national Kulhushan Jadhav. Presenting the report of the International Court of Justice to the 193-member General Assembly, he said, in its judgement of July 17, the principal judicial organ of the United Nations found that Pakistan had violated its obligations under Article 36 of the Vienna Convention and that appropriate remedies were due in this case. In a major victory for India, the ICJ had ruled that Pakistan must review the death sentence awarded to Jadhav, a retired Indian Navy officer who was sentenced to death by the Pakistani military court on charges of espionage and terrorism after a closed trial in April 2017. India had argued that consular access was being denied to its national in violation of the 1963 Vienna Convention on Consular Relations.

■ Britain is all set to go to the polls on December 12 after British Parliamentarians backed Prime Minister Boris Johnson's call for an election to break the Brexit deadlock. Hours after the European Union formally agreed to postpone Britain's departure again, up to the end of January, the House of Commons on last night backed the election date in a vote by a 438 to 20 margin. It will be the UK's third election in four years and the first December poll since 1923 once the House of Lords passes the legislation and it becomes law by the end of the week. Once that happens, there will be a five-week campaign up to the polling day.

SPORTS

■ Tiger Woods made history when he won the Zozo Golf Championship in Japan for his 82nd US PGA Tour victory, equalling Sam Snead's 54-year-old record. The 15-time major winner held off the challenge of home favourite Hideki Matsuyama to win by three shots at the tournament. It was his first outing since a left knee surgery in August.
