A Quarterly Publication of Alumni Association

VOLUME 2 ISSUE 3

OCT—DEC 2012

My Dear Alumni's,

I hope this message reach you in the best of your health and happiness.

It is indeed a moment of great pleasure in coming to you as your representative - For a brief interactions of our activities as Alumni Association of the institute. The institute, we all are truly proud and which has been progressing in leaps and bounds in the past few years.

There has been drastic-n-dramatic change in the campus. Skyline of our institute is now marked with ample of structure which has state of the Art facilities enabling the students of various branches get their thirst for knowledge fully quenched. Looking at this fully loaded infrastructure campus really gives a great satisfaction and make us proud to be a part of it. I believe it is a mutually rewarding relationship, as we alumni who are also well placed in our business endeavors, so many successful entrepreneurs, research scientist and authorities in various fields working here and Abroad has always made the institute proud; and shall continue to do so.

Time takes its own course of action to set some trends

The set trends then become reputation.....

And the continuing reputation for years as long as 30 years marks the beginning of The 'Legacy'!

Yes, in coming years I am sure that we alumni would be referred to be the part and parcel of the Legacy the Brand RIT would be carrying with it.

Now we also have in our campus the well organized new guest house with 14 Double bed deluxe A/C rooms and a few suites to extend the Joy of being in campus.

You may also be aware of many on-campus activities which have been performed by this Association since we have seen each other for the last time.

I have a lot more to say as I am sure you would also like to, so why not stop here the one way communication and let's catch up each other at our next Alumni meet.

Till then Keep Rocking RIT Guys!

See you on coming Alumni Meet.

Good bye, Take care and have a great time.....!!!!

13 Behaviors of High-Trust Leaders Worldwide

By: Stephen M. R. Covey

I approach this strategy primarily as a practitioner, both in my own experience and in my extensive work with other organizations. Throughout this learning process, have identified 13 common behaviors of trusted leaders around the world that build -- and allow you to maintain -- trust. When you adopt these ways of behaving, it's like making deposits into a "trust account" of another party.

- | | |
|------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. Talk Straight | 8. Confront Reality |
| 2. Demonstrate Respect | 9. Clarify Expectation |
| 3. Create Transparency | 10. Practice Accountability |
| 4. Right Wrongs | 11. Listen First |
| 5. Show Loyalty | 12. Keep Commitments |
| 6. Deliver Results | 13. Extend Trust |
| 7. Get Better | |

Remember that the 13 Behaviors always need to be balanced by each other (e.g., Talk Straight needs to be balanced by Demonstrate Respect) and that any behavior pushed to the extreme can become a weakness.

Depending on your roles and responsibilities, you may have more or less influence on others. However, you can always have extraordinary influence on your starting points: Self-Trust (the confidence you have in yourself -- in your ability to set and achieve goals, to keep commitments, to walk your talk, and also with your ability to inspire trust in others) and Relationship Trust (how to establish and increase the trust accounts we have with others).

The job of a leader is to go first, to extend trust first. Not a blind trust without expectations and accountability, but rather a "smart trust" with clear expectations and strong accountability built into the process. The best leaders always lead out with a decided propensity to trust, as opposed to a propensity not to trust. As Craig Weatherup, former CEO of PepsiCo said, "Trust cannot become a performance multiplier unless the leader is prepared to go first."

The best leaders recognize that trust impacts us 24/7, 365 days a year. It undergirds and affects the quality of every relationship, every communication, every work project, every business venture, every effort in which we are engaged. It changes the quality of every present moment and alters the trajectory and outcome of every future moment of our lives -- both personally and professionally. I am convinced that in every situation, nothing is as fast as the speed of trust.

Programs Organised

An Appeal To All RITians !!!

Dear Alumni,

Started in August 1983, Rajarambapu Institute of Technology is presently offering 7 undergraduate and 11 postgraduate programs. All the programs are accredited and reaccredited by NBA, AICTE New Delhi. In the year 2010-11, UGC and Shivaji University, Kolhapur granted autonomy to the institute and from the academic year 2011-12 with first batch of it we started offering B.Tech. and M.Tech. Programs.

The institute believes in imparting quality education and has been motivated to provide such an environment which enhances learning among students. To meet changing expectations from such learning centers your institute is erecting a separate building for library. This library aims at providing, organizing and making available modern and rich set of specialized information sources. It will also prove an excellent service in support of teaching and research. This will improve physical and online learning environments. This treasure of books will play a leading role in enhancing the overall student experience.

For this noble academic cause the institute is expecting from alumni generous donations to complete this project. Any donation you would provide will be gratefully received. Your special contributions will be acknowledged by the title you suggest to a section in the library. We have great respect for you and we know that you have always been very keen and supportive to your institute.

The Donation can be credited to-Bank Name- Axis Bank,

Motivational Quotes

- It is better to lead from behind and to put others in front, especially when you celebrate victory when nice things occur. You take the front line when there is danger. Then people will appreciate your leadership.

Nelson Mandela

- Don't find fault, find a remedy.

Henry Ford

Health Tips

- Drink lot of water, to avoid dehydration during summer. Drinking water in regular interval is advisable. Keep your body warm as viruses attack immediately when body temperature goes down.
- Wear a hat to be cool and shade. Also use good sunscreen to prevent sunburn.
- Eat fruits that contain lot of water such as water melon, orange, grapes, cucumber etc.
